

HIGHLIGHTED ARTWORKS

	Image & Description	Artwork Title (Year) & Description	Medium, Dimensions
1		Boat Quay (2024) In favour of a fluid and gestural approach, Ang's expressive brush strokes imbue the scene with a sense of energy and immediacy. The interplay of blue, purple and white with splashes of colour, transforms a familiar landscape into a heightened realm of symbolism that transcends faithful representation. Remaining rooted in the recognisable silhouette of Boat Quay, the iconic godowns and tugboats exude a historic charm reflecting Singapore River's past as a centre of trade and port of call.	Acrylic on canvas 80cm x 80cm
2		Grand Canal-Venice (2023) The historic grandeur of the Grand Canal of Venice has inspired countless artists, including Ang Ah Tee. Lined with opulent palaces and colourful gondolas, the water, light and architectural splendour of the landscape before him offers endless possibilities for visual interpretation. Ang infuses the setting with warm hues of yellow, orange and red, creating an uplifting ambience that is multi-layered and textural. Movement and excitement pulsate through the work in varying shades and intensities, capturing the essence of the city's vivacity and energy within.	Acrylic on canvas 80cm x 80cm

3	 An abstract painting of a pink house with a blue window and a blue vase with yellow flowers in the foreground. The style is expressive with visible brushstrokes.	Pink House-Chinatown (2023) Shophouses are iconic buildings that were built between 1840s to mid-1900s, they form majority of pre-war urban fabric of the old city centre and different parts of Singapore, they are also found in historic cities of Southeast Asia. Ang's love for historic places invites us to explore historical and cultural stories embedded within physical landmarks. By emphasising bold colours, form and brushstrokes, Ang creates a subjective experience rather than one of photographic accuracy. A new way of expression that encourages conversations and different points of view, of the past, present and perhaps a way forward, to the future.	Acrylic on canvas 80cm x 80cm
4	 An abstract painting of a river scene with a bridge and a boat. The colors are dominated by blue, orange, and white, with visible brushstrokes.	River Seine-Paris (2024) The River Seine meanders through the heart of Paris, offering breathtaking views of the city's iconic landmarks unfolding along its banks. Ang Ah Tee captures a moment of contemplation where tranquility and bustling city coexist, where the river's surface mirrors the city's elegance, timelessness and joyful spirit.	Acrylic on canvas 80cm x 80cm
